YUKON LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

Motions adopted during the continuation of the
First Session of the 28th Legislative Assembly

November 10, 1993 – January 27, 1994

1. Motion #48 – Mr. Cable, Member for Riverside
Carried November 17, 1993

THAT it is the opinion of this House that the Human Rights Commission should appear before this House, during the current session, to report to this House and advise on:

- (1) The status of race relations in Yukon;
- (2) What activities have been carried out by the Commission to foster improved race relations; and
- (3) What the Members of this House, and community leaders, may do to improve race relations in the Yukon community.

2. Motion #34 – Ms. Commodore, Member for Whitehorse Centre
Carried January 5, 1994

THAT it is the opinion of this House:

- (a) that a policy of Zero Tolerance of violence against women and children is a valuable and important tool for ensuring that response to violence, or threatened violence, is quick, efficient, effective, and thorough; and
- (b) that any initiatives taken in support of this policy should be designed and implemented in concert with First Nations, law enforcement agencies and the Integration '93 Committee, so that there is a co-ordinated and consistent response.

Amended

3. Motion #56 – Hon. Mr. Phelps, Minister of Justice
Carried January 24, 1994

THAT the Yukon Legislative Assembly, pursuant to Section 16(1) of the Human Rights Act, appoint Ms. Brenda Chambers to be a member of the Yukon Human Rights Commission.

Committee of the Whole Motions

1. C/W Motion #1 – Hon. Mr. Phelps, Minister of Justice
Carried December 1, 1993

THAT, at 4:00 p.m. until 5:25 p.m. on Thursday, December 9, 1993, Ms. Debra Fendrick, Chair of the Human Rights Commission, Mr. Jon Breen, Commissioner, and Ms. Margaret McCullough, Executive Director, appear as witnesses before Committee of the Whole to discuss race relations in the Yukon.

2. C/W Motion #2 – Hon. Mr. Phelps, Minister of Health and Social Services
Carried January 5, 1994

THAT, at 4:00 p.m. until 5:25 p.m. on Thursday, January 6, 1994, Mr. Ross Findlater, Executive Director, and Mr. Jim Newnham, President of Yukon Family Services Association, appear as witnesses before Committee of the Whole during debate on Bill No. 38 entitled Yukon Family Services Association Rent Guarantee Act.
