SPEAKER'S RULING

Re: Unparliamentary language

Prior to proceeding with the Oral Question Period, the Speaker made the following ruling on a Point of Order raised on October 22, 2015 by Ms. Stick, Official Opposition House Leader.

"Before proceeding to today's Question Period, the Chair will further rule on a point of order that was raised during Question Period last Thursday by the Official Opposition House Leader. At end of his ruling, the Chair committed to review the Blues and give a further ruling, if required. This is a procedure that is done every morning during our Sittings. After reviewing the events of last Thursday, I believe a further ruling is required in order to make clear what might have not been clear as events unfolded. During last Thursday's Question Period, the Minister of Education said that the Member for Riverdale South had misquoted him. He went on to say – and I quote: "She did not tell the truth in the letter that she sent out to all MLAs". As the Chair said in his ruling on Thursday, members are free to present the facts as they see fit inside this House and outside of it. However, there are limits on the language that members may use in the House when contesting the facts presented by other members. It is a long-standing tradition of parliaments that members are to treat each other honourably, even when they disagree. For one member to say, as the Minister of Education did on Thursday, that another member "did not tell the truth" falls short of that standard, and the Chair should have ruled that language out of order. As I did on Thursday, I would again remind members that when it comes to unparliamentary language, they should be careful with their comments whether they have the floor, or not. Although off-mic comments are not recorded in Hansard, they are heard by other members and can also contribute to disorder in the House. As a matter of procedure, I would like to remind members that, pursuant to Standing Order 6(1), no debate is permitted on rulings from the Chair. In other words, a Speaker's ruling on a point of order is final. I hope this statement clarifies the situation for members."

The House conducted the Oral Question Period from 1:25 p.m. to 1:58 p.m.

The House then proceeded to Orders of the Day.
