SPEAKER'S RULING (Re: Standing Order 19(g))

Prior to proceeding with Question Period, the Chair made the following ruling on a Point of Order raised on March 25, 2013 by the Hon. Mr. Cathers, Government House Leader.

"Yesterday during Question Period, the Leader of the Official Opposition said the government has 'fostered a culture of their way or the highway'. The Government House Leader then rose on a Point of Order and said that the statement by the Leader of the Official Opposition constituted a breach of Standing Order 19(g).

The Official Opposition House Leader then intervened and said that there was no Point of Order and that the Leader of the Official Opposition had only expressed her opinion 'of the actions of this government and the consequences thereof'. The Chair committed to review the Blues and return to the House with a ruling.

Standing Order 19(g) says, 'A member shall be called to order by the Speaker if that member imputes false or unavowed motives to another member.' In reviewing the statement made by the Leader of the Official Opposition, the Chair does not find that the statement by the Member breached Standing Order 19(g). ### MINISTERIAL STATEMENT

SPEAKER'S STATEMENT (Re: Language)

Prior to proceeding to Question Period, the Speaker made the following statement regarding language used during proceedings on Wednesday, April 24, 2013:

"Throughout this Sitting, the Chair has given Members considerable latitude in asking questions and providing responses in Question Period and participating in debates on bills and motions. For the most part, Members have responsibly exercised their right to speak in this House. Some contributions to yesterday's proceedings, however, raise concerns.

As the Chair has previously informed Members, one of the fundamental principles of parliamentary procedure is that Members are to treat one another as honourable, no matter how strongly they disagree with one another about matters of public policy. Members are to show one another respect during proceedings, irrespective of personal opinions or feelings they may hold.

Yesterday, however, Members on both sides of the House made comments that did not reflect well on themselves, on other Members, or the Legislative Assembly as an institution. Upon reviewing the Blues, the Chair notes that one Member accused another Member of "fearmongering" and said that the Member "should be ashamed of herself." Later in Question Period, the term "mudslinging" was also used. There were various statements by Members, during Question Period and during Orders of the Day, that directly or indirectly questioned whether another Member was telling the truth. During the debate on Motion #372, we heard Members use the words "silly" and "silliness" to describe the words or actions of other Members.

The Chair would like to reiterate a point he has made before. Members are here to debate important issues – issues about which they and their constituents hold strong views. Strongly held views often lead to strongly worded statements. The rules of debate permit strongly worded statements. However, the rules do not permit statements that are insulting or disrespectful.

As I have said before, the Chair would prefer not to intervene in Question Period and debates. It would be preferable if Members would restrain themselves during proceedings. Members have shown themselves capable of dealing with matters of great public importance by focusing on the issues and not resorting to insulting or disrespectful language. The Chair would urge Members to continue to do so in the future. The Chair would like to thank all Members for their attention.”

The House conducted the Oral Question Period from 1:22 p.m. to 1:57 p.m.

SPEAKER'S STATEMENT (Re: Proper Order and Decorum during Points of Order)

Prior to proceeding with Orders of the Day, the Speaker, made the following statement regarding proper order and decorum during Points of Order:

"Yesterday, the Official Opposition House Leader raised a Point of Order during Second Reading of Bill #57. Some Members, who had not been recognized by the Chair, continued to speak while the Official Opposition House Leader and the Government House Leader spoke to the Point of Order.

This is not in order. Standing Order 6(6) says, 'When a Member is speaking, no Member shall interrupt, except to raise a Point of Order or a Question of Privilege.' So only the Member who has been recognized by the Chair to address the Point of Order should be speaking.

If other Members wish to contribute to the resolution of the Point of Order, they must wait to be recognized by the Chair.

Also, some Members continued to speak while the Chair was conferring with the Clerk about the Point of Order and while the Chair was delivering his ruling. This, too, is not in order. Standing Order 6(4) says, 'When the Speaker speaks at any time, any member speaking shall sit down and the Speaker shall be heard without interruption.'

On a related point, when the Chair asks a Member to apologize for a statement made or to retract words that a Member has said, the Member shall do so without qualification. Once the Speaker has ruled on the Point of Order, the Member does not have the opportunity to further explain his or her remarks or to comment on the ruling. The Member is to simply offer the apology or retraction and move on.

The Chair thanks all Members for their attention."

MINISTERIAL STATEMENT

No ministerial statement was given.

SPEAKER'S STATEMENT (Re: Treating Members with Respect)

Prior to proceeding with Question Period the Speaker made the following statement regarding a Point of Order that was raised on Thursday, May 9, 2013, by the Official Opposition House Leader.

"Last Thursday the Minister of Energy, Mines and Resources said, in response to a question from the Member for Mayo-Tatchun, that 'The Member has a pattern of making up his statistics'.

At the time the Chair ruled that there was no Point of Order as it is not the role of the Chair to determine the factual basis of questions being asked or responses being provided.

The Chair has now reviewed the Blues, as he does for every sitting day. In stating that the Member for Mayo-Tatchun 'has a pattern of making up his statistics' the Minister not only cast doubt on the statistics being used by the Member for Mayo-Tatchun – which is in fact in order – but also, more importantly, he cast doubt upon that Member's character – which is not in order.

The Chair has, on a number of occasions, reminded Members that they are to treat one another as honourable, no matter how much they may disagree with one another. The statement by the Minister of Energy, Mines and Resources did not uphold that standard.

I would remind Members that this is the last week of the 2013 Spring Sitting and would ask them to redouble their efforts to adhere to the rules of order and decorum over these final few days.

The Chair thanks all Members for their attention."

ORAL QUESTION PERIOD

The House conducted the Oral Question Period from 1:15 p.m. to 1:47 p.m.

SPEAKER'S STATEMENT (Re: Treating Members with Respect)

Prior to proceeding with Orders of the Day, the Speaker made the following statement:

" I would like to remind Members that they are expected to treat each other with respect and honour. To suggest that a Member is deliberately trying to create an environment of fear, or words of that nature, in my opinion is not an honourable statement. The Member may not have their facts correct, that's their interpretation of the facts. If it does actually result in a misunderstanding by someone, that's about the facts. Suggesting that a member is deliberately trying to create an environment of fear is not acceptable, and I would ask Members to keep that in mind, not just in Question Period but throughout their debates."

The House then proceeded to Orders of the Day.
