Clerk advises House that Commissioner will not deliver Speech from the Throne until Speaker is elected

The Commissioner, the Hon. Jack Cable, entered the Chamber and took the Chair.

The Clerk of the Legislative Assembly then stated:

“I am commanded by the Commissioner, in his capacity as Lieutenant-Governor, to state that he does not see fit to declare the causes of the summoning of the present Assembly of this Territory until a Speaker of this Assembly shall have been chosen according to law, but today at a subsequent hour he will declare the causes of the calling of this Assembly.”

The Commissioner then retired from the Chamber.

ELECTION OF SPEAKER

The Clerk addressed the House:

“Honourable Members, nominations are invited for the office of Speaker of this Assembly.”

It was moved by the Hon. Mr. Fentie, Premier, and seconded by Mr. McRobb, Official Opposition House Leader, and Ms. Duncan, Leader of the Third Party:

“THAT Ted Staffen, Member for Riverdale North, do take the Chair of this Assembly as Speaker.” (Motion #1)

The Clerk, having scanned the House for further nominations, repeated the motion and called for a vote. He then stated:

“The ayes have it, and Ted Staffen, Member for Riverdale North, is, by direction of this Assembly, duly elected as Speaker of the Yukon Legislative Assembly.”

SPEAKER’S ADDRESS TO THE ASSEMBLY

The Speaker retired, donned his robe and re-entered the Chamber.

The Premier, the Official Opposition House Leader, and the Leader of the Third Party shook hands with the newly-elected Speaker and offered their congratulations.

Standing on the Dais, the Speaker thanked the Assembly as follows:

“I would like to express my thanks to the Assembly for the great honour it has given me by electing me to be its 22nd Speaker.

I would also like to express my gratitude to my wife, Susan, our son, Jess, and our daughter, Bailey, who have been a continuous source of support to me. I’d also like to thank my constituents in the Electoral District of Riverdale North for the pleasure of serving them.”

The Speaker then took his seat and addressed the Clerk as follows:

“Mr. Clerk, will you please advise the Commissioner, in his capacity as Lieutenant-Governor, that the Assembly is now prepared to hear the Speech from the Throne.”

The Commissioner returned to the Chamber and took the Chair.

SPEAKER’S ADDRESS TO THE COMMISSIONER

The Speaker then said:

“Mr. Commissioner:

The Members of the Legislative Assembly have elected me to be their Speaker and I recognize the important duties now given to me. If, in the performance of those duties, I should at any time make a mistake, the fault is mine and not that of the Assembly, whose servant I am. At this time, so that all Members of the Assembly can best carry out their duty to the Yukon, to their country and to the Queen, I would claim for them their undoubted rights and privileges, especially freedom of speech in their debates, access to your person when necessary, and your favourable consideration of their proceedings.”

RESPONSE BY THE COMMISSIONER

The Commissioner then said:

“Mr. Speaker:

I am pleased to declare to you that I believe in the duty of the Assembly and, not doubting that the Assembly’s proceedings will be conducted with wisdom, temper and care, I grant and allow the Assembly’s constitutional privileges. I assure you that the Assembly shall have ready access to me and that the Assembly’s proceedings, words and actions will receive from me favourable consideration.”

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE

The Commissioner then delivered the Speech from the Throne as follows:

“Mr. Speaker, Members of the Yukon Legislative Assembly, Yukoners, visitors and honoured guests, I welcome you in our Sovereign’s name to the First Session of the Thirty-First Legislative Assembly.

Working Together For A Better Future

As we come together on this 27th day of February, 2003, we reflect back on a time thirty years and thirteen days ago when a delegation representing Yukon First Nations presented their land claim Together Today for Our Children Tomorrow to the Government of Canada.

This presentation was a landmark event in the history of Yukon. While many of those who presented the claim are no longer with us, their spirit and their vision live on.

My government is committed to implementing that vision by working together today with Yukon First Nations and other Yukoners to provide for a better future for all of our children tomorrow.

These are challenging and uncertain times for the territory, the country and the world. The tragic events of 9/11 and its aftermath have clearly demonstrated that the Yukon is not isolated, insulated or immune from happenings on the world stage. Yukoners both at home and abroad have experienced the impact of these tragic events first hand.

These events have occurred at a time when the Yukon is in economic recession and they have added to our burden.

Since 1996, over three thousand Yukoners have chosen to leave the territory to seek their livelihoods elsewhere. Many of these Yukoners are in the 25 to 34 age group with young families. They are our future and they are leaving.

My government is committed to reversing this trend. On November 4, 2002, we received a mandate from the people of Yukon to bring about the necessary changes to rebuild the Yukon economy and create a better life for Yukoners both now and in the future.

Establishing Priorities

In order to fulfil its mandate, my government has established eight priorities that will guide its agenda in the coming years.

These priorities include:

- Rebuilding the economy.
- Completing and implementing land claims.
- Formalising government to government relationships with First Nations.
- Making First Nations full partners in the economic development of the territory.
- Implementing and improving devolution.

- Achieving a proper balance between the economy and the environment.
- Achieving a better quality of life.
- Practising good government.

Rebuilding The Economy

My government believes the Yukon can have a bright, vibrant economic future and rebuilding it is our top priority.

Traditionally, the Yukon has been known for its resource-based economy - dependent primarily upon hard rock and placer mining.

Unsettled land claims, a complex permitting regime controlled by the federal government and the process for creating protected areas have created uncertainty in the investment community.

The net result has been a serious decline in mining exploration and development in the territory.

The forest industry has suffered a similar fate in being denied long-term access to timber.

The oil and gas industry has considerable potential especially in southeast and north Yukon.

Gaining recognition as a unique destination, tourism is now the Yukon's leading industry. Building on past successes, new opportunities in niche markets are promising.

My government is committed to rejuvenating the resource sector, enhancing tourism and diversifying the economy by promoting the development of other industries such as film, culture and information technology.

This government has established a stand-alone Department of Economic Development and reinstated the Department of Tourism and Culture. Both departments will be tasked with strategically creating economic success.

Investment in the resource sector will be promoted through the creation of a resource permitting regime modeled on the successful regimes that are currently in use in other jurisdictions such as Manitoba, Quebec and Ontario.

Further, a regulation task force will be established to review government policies, regulations and legislation in order to eliminate duplication, and reduce administrative requirements and compliance costs.

There is a renewed sense of optimism in the resource sector. In December, at Resource Expo 2002 Conference on Aboriginal Energy and Resource Development in Calgary, there was considerable interest expressed by the oil and gas industry in the territory, particularly in the southeast Yukon. Similarly in January 2003 at the Cordilleran Roundup, a major mining event in Vancouver, mining companies were expressing a renewed interest in exploration in the Yukon. Obviously high gold prices and the recent emerald discovery are sparking this interest.

Programs such as FireSmart and the Community Development Fund have been reinstated and have been utilised this winter to put Yukoners to work.

Of the $1.5 million allocated to FireSmart, $1.2 million has already been approved and is funding applications from fourteen First Nation governments and thirteen communities.

As for the interim Community Development Fund, there have been $7 million in applications by the February 7, 2003 deadline for this $3.5 million fund, which shows the high degree of interest in this program.

My government is also committed to investing in energy and transportation infrastructure that will serve both tourism and the resource industries.

With the approval of the Kaska Nation and the Town of Watson Lake, the development of a resource access road in the southeast Yukon would open up this resource-rich area for mining, oil & gas and forestry.

The territory has been blessed with an abundance of natural resources that if developed in an environmentally responsible manner, should be able to promote and sustain a vibrant and healthy economy.

The challenge facing my government is to develop a sustainable economy that is based on the private sector rather than on transfer payments from the Government of Canada.

Completing And Implementing Land Claims

Completing and implementing land claims is another priority.

For thirty years the Government of Yukon and First Nations have been sitting across from one another at the land claims negotiating table.

At the present time, eight of the fourteen Yukon First Nations have finalised their land claims settlements.

If requested by First Nations, my government is prepared to assist in completing the unfinished business, whether it be helping with the ratification process for the four First Nations that have signed Memorandums of Understanding, or in re-engaging the federal government in negotiations with the two First Nations that have not reached final agreements.

The respective parties have invested years of negotiation in the land claims process and my government will do everything within its power to bring this process to a successful conclusion.

My government is committed to fully implementing the land claims agreements that have been reached and to make them living, working documents.

Formalising A Government To Government Relationship With First Nations

My government is committed as a priority to establishing a government to government relationship with First Nations based on mutual respect, consultation and collaboration for the better operation of all governments in the territory, with the objective of reducing barriers and providing more cost-effective services to all Yukon citizens.

This relationship will extend to all areas of governance including the economy, education, health, justice, social and community services.

Recently announced agreements with the Kwanlin Dun First Nation and the Vuntut Gwitchin First Nation are in keeping with this major commitment of my government.

Making First Nations Full Partners In The Economic Development Of The Territory

Making First Nations a full partner in the economic development of the territory is an important priority.

For far too long, Yukon First Nations have experienced the impact of development while experiencing few of the economic benefits.

The Klondike Gold Rush of 1898 and the construction of the Alaska Highway in 1942 are two major examples.

It is time for First Nations to receive their fair share of economic benefits from resource development within their traditional territories.

First Nations are being invited to share in the burdens of the decision-making process as well as share in the economic benefits resulting from these decisions.

My government is taking what it calls a "Team Yukon" approach to governance with First Nations in order to create a positive investment climate in the territory.

By working together, my government believes it is possible to align the economic interests of the First Nation governments with those of the Government of Yukon.

It is the objective of my government to develop a governance regime that will provide the certainty resource investors need to make positive decisions about investing in Yukon's resources. This will lead to jobs for all Yukoners.

Implementing And Improving Devolution

My government is committed to implementing and improving devolution.

On April 1, 2003, my government will assume the responsibility under the Devolution Transfer Agreement, for the control and management of the territory's mineral, land, forest and water resources.

Devolution will allow my government to manage and develop the territory's resource wealth for the benefit of all Yukon people both now and in the future.

Devolution will allow my government to implement policies and regulatory regimes that will contribute to a prosperous and competitive economy.

Devolution can also serve as a useful tool to help restore investor confidence in the territory.

While my government is committed to implementing devolution, it also recognises that there are major problems with both the Devolution Transfer Agreement and the new Yukon Act that need to be addressed.

One major problem concerns devolution proceeding before the completion of the Liard First Nation's land claim, the settlement of the Ross River Dena Council and the Kaska Nation trans-boundary claims, as well as possibly before the ratification of the four First Nations that have signed memorandums of understanding.

The Kaska Nation plans to challenge devolution in the courts on May 13, 2003 and my government has employed a negotiator to seek an abeyance agreement prior to this date.

Outside land claims and the abeyance agreement, my government is developing an economic partnership with the Kaska with the objective of opening up southeast Yukon to mutually acceptable resource development.

Should my government be successful in reaching an agreement in southeast Yukon where land claims remain outstanding, the task should be made that much easier in reaching agreements with other First Nations that have land claim agreements or who are in the ratification process. By involving First Nations in the resource development decision-making process, my government believes devolution will provide the land and resource certainty that industry is seeking and will contribute positively in rebuilding the Yukon economy.

Other major problems with devolution concern the transfer of federal employees to the Government of Yukon, funding for forest fire suppression, environmental liability and mine site reclamations as well as issues relating to the Crown in Right of Yukon, and the recognition of the territory's northern offshore boundaries in the Beaufort Sea.

My government is committed to working to correct these deficiencies over the course of its mandate.

Achieving A Balance Between The Economy And The Environment

In order to rebuild the Yukon economy, there must be a proper balance between economic development and environmental protection.

My government is committed to achieving this priority while respecting the environment.

Towards balance, my government has discontinued the existing Yukon Protected Areas Strategy while continuing with the significant obligations under the land claims agreements for Special Management Areas.

The ultimate establishment of protected areas must be through a process of negotiation with all Yukon partners and stakeholders, which strikes a balance between environmental protection and responsible development.

On January 31, 2003, my government and the Vuntut Gwitchin signed an agreement that established the boundaries of the Fishing Branch Park and work will proceed on implementing the management plan.

The recent decision by the Minister of the Department of Fisheries and Oceans to phase out the Yukon Placer Authorisation that has been in place for a decade has once again demonstrated the need to reach a proper balance between the operational needs of the placer mining industry and the responsibility of DFO to protect fish habitat.

The Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development has estimated that 56% of placer mining operations in the territory will have to shut down because of the new water quality standards.

My government is committed to working with the mining industry, First Nation governments and the federal minister to resolve the current impasse.

It must be recognised that many Yukon rivers such as the White River are naturally silty and still fish are found in them.

Clean drinking water is a resource Yukoners treasure and my government is committed to taking measures to ensure its safety.

It will also initiate measures to deal with hazardous waste such as waste oil as well as promote recycling in order to keep our environment clean.

In view of developing economic pressures, my government will continue to support the initiatives of the Vuntut Gwitchin to preserve and protect the Porcupine Caribou Herd.

In developing and diversifying the Yukon economy, my government honours its obligation to protect the Yukon's environment and its fish and wildlife.

Achieving A Better Quality Of Life

All of the foregoing priorities of my government will mean little if they do not lead to improving the quality of life of Yukon residents and create healthy, vibrant communities.

People are Yukon's most precious resource and how well a society cares for their citizens from the very young to the very old is of paramount importance.

The Yukon, like its two sister territories, is confronted with ever increasing health care costs that can no longer be sustained and the Canadian Health Services Transfer Program that provides federal funding for provincial health care is of little assistance to the northern territories because of their small populations, vast distances and high costs.

My government has joined with the Government of the Northwest Territories and the Government of Nunavut to seek an accord with the Government of Canada that will address the high cost of providing health care North of Sixty.

Alcohol and drug abuses are endemic Yukon problems.

As a consequence, Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder is one of the most serious, all pervasive Yukon problems that is affecting our education, health care, justice and social service systems.

My government is committed to implementing a five-step action plan to deal with this FASD affliction.

My government must ensure that the right programs are being delivered to those in most need on a priority basis and that the best services possible are being delivered in the most cost-effective manner.

Yukon's public and advanced education system must provide Yukon students with the necessary skills to prepare them for the job market, responsible citizenship and lifelong learning.

My government is committed to promoting excellence in education and providing assistance to both students and teachers in achieving this goal. As well, appropriate training programs will exist so Yukoners can get jobs resulting from local economic opportunities.

The provision of affordable, quality childcare is also of concern to my government and is being examined, as are measures to promote the well being of the Yukon's elders and seniors such as increasing the Pioneer Utility Grant.

The territory has artistic, educational, health, social and recreational services and facilities that are second to none in Canada.

This government believes in our cultural and heritage resources and recognizes the value they bring to all Yukoners and the tourism industry.

The challenges facing my government in preserving and maintaining the quality of life in the Yukon are many and varied. My government is committed to meeting these challenges.

Practising Good Government

Practising good government is another important priority of my government.

It is adopting an inclusive approach to governance based upon consensus, consultation, collaboration and where need be - compromise.

In the legislature, this approach means my government will be seeking support for an all-party committee on appointments to major boards and committees as well as an all-party agreement on a code of conduct and decorum in the legislature.

It will also lead to the establishment of a commission to examine electoral reform.

This approach means working with Yukoners and the Yukon public service to ensure government programs and services, as well as the structure of government, are designed to meet the needs of Yukoners.

I have already mentioned the reinstatement of the Departments of Economic Development and Tourism and Culture. In addition, the Department of Infrastructure is being renamed as the Department of Highways and Public Works and the Women's Directorate will be restored to its previous status.

This collaborative approach is also being utilised to develop a Pan-Northern co-operative relationship with the Northwest Territories and Nunavut as well as with the State of Alaska and the Province of British Columbia.

Health care, northern pipelines and a Pan-Northern Economic Agreement are all matters where the three territories can co-operate for their mutual benefit.

My government believes that the three northern territories working collectively together will be better able to achieve their objectives with the federal and provincial governments than by working in isolation.

During this sitting, honourable members will be asked to consider the 2003/04 Capital and Operation and Maintenance Budget, an Act to Amend the Pioneer Utility Grant Act, Amendments to The Fuel Oil Tax Act, An Act to Amend the Supreme Court Act, an Act to Amend The Territorial Court Act and an Act to repeal The Government Accountability Act.

In addition to these Bills, Members will be asked to consider mirror legislation that will give legislative force and effect to the Devolution Transfer Agreement effective April 1, 2003. The Mirror Legislation includes The Placer Mining Act, The Quartz Mining Act, The Territorial Lands (Yukon) Act, The Waters Act and The Environmental Assessment Act.

May divine providence attend your deliberations. I thank you in our Sovereign's name.

God Bless Yukon and God Bless Canada."

The Commissioner then retired from the Chamber.

The Speaker resumed the Chair and prior to calling the House to order, informed the House that former Speaker Sam Johnston, would be received to give the opening prayer and directed the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort Mr. Johnston to the Table.

At the conclusion of the opening prayer, the Speaker called the House to order.

Moved by the Hon. Mr. Kenyon:

THAT it is the opinion of this House that:

- (1) the placer mining industry in the Yukon is of special significance to the territory having helped create the territory as a separate jurisdiction in Canada in 1898, and remains an economic mainstay to this day over 100 years later,
- (2) the Yukon Placer Authorization signed in 1993 has served to enable the placer mining industry to continue operations while protecting and preserving fish habitat for a decade,
- (3) the recent decision by the Department of Fisheries and Oceans to phase out the Yukon Placer Authorization and to replace it with a 25 mg/L sediment standard will effectively destroy the placer mining industry, and
- (4) this standard was proposed by the Department of Fisheries and Oceans without consultation with the industry and in contravention of the consultation requirements with First Nations governments as required by their land claims agreements; and

THAT this House urges the Minister of Fisheries and Oceans, the Honourable Robert Thibault, to consult with the placer industry, the Yukon Placer Committee, Government of Yukon, First Nations governments and other stakeholders to reinstate the Yukon Placer Authorization or replace it with a similar authorization. (Motion #5)

A debate arising on the motion, it was moved by Mr. McRobb, Member for Kluane, in amendment thereto:

THAT Motion #5 be amended by replacing the wording after the end of clause (2) with the following:

- (3) the recent decision by the Department of Fisheries and Oceans to phase out the Yukon Placer Authorization was made without the due consideration of the fact that the Yukon Government will inherit primary responsibility for environmental liabilities in the territory as of April 1, 2003,
- (4) this decision was made without proper consultation with industry and other stakeholders, and in contravention of the consultation requirements with Yukon First Nations governments as required by their land claim agreements,

- (5) the decision was made and communicated without proper study or due consideration of its economic and social impact on Yukon people and their families, or on the Yukon's economy as a whole; and

THAT this House urges the Minister of Fisheries and Oceans, in conjunction with the Government of Yukon, to commission a comprehensive and independent study of the true impacts of placer mining on fish habitat, prior to conducting an open consultation process that meets the highest standards of inclusiveness and fairness, with the aim of developing a Yukon-driven process of placer authorization that achieves the objectives of protecting fish habitat without imperiling the ability of responsible placer miners to conduct a legitimate and important economic activity.

A debate arising on the amendment to Motion #5 and the time approaching 6:00 p.m., the Hon. Mr. Fentie, Premier, moved that debate be now adjourned. The question being put, it was agreed to.

OPPOSITION PRIVATE MEMBERS' BUSINESS

MOTIONS OTHER THAN GOVERNMENT MOTIONS

Moved by Mr. Hardy, Leader of the Official Opposition:

THAT it is the opinion of this House that:

- (1) neither the United States Administration nor the United Nations Security Council has provided any compelling evidence to justify a declaration of war on the people of Iraq, and
- (2) the integrity of Canada as a sovereign nation would be in jeopardy if this country allowed itself to be drawn into unjustified military adventures at the behest of the United States or any other military power; and

THAT this House urges the Government of Canada to adopt an independent foreign policy that includes restricting the use of Canadian military personnel and resources to the roles of peacekeeping, research, assistance in civil emergencies, and defence against direct threats to the Canadian nation or its people. (Motion #6)

GOVERNMENT PRIVATE MEMBERS' BUSINESS

MOTIONS OTHER THAN GOVERNMENT MOTIONS

Moved by Mr. Hassard, Member for Pelly-Nisutlin:

THAT it is the opinion of this House that there would be significant economic benefits for Yukon should a railroad be built connecting Alaska, through Yukon, to the southern United States;

THAT this House recognizes that:

- (1) the Alaska House of Representatives unanimously passed a bill setting aside land for a railroad right-of-way up to the Yukon border; and
- (2) Senator John Cowdery, of the Alaska State Legislature, has tabled a Bill entitled An Act relating to a railroad utility corridor for extension of the Alaska Railroad to Canada and for the extension of the Alaska Railroad to connect with the North American Railroad system; and

THAT this House urges the Government of Canada, the Government of Yukon and Yukon First Nations whose lands the railroad would cross to express their willingness to consider the Alaskan railroad proposal, including the setting aside of lands for a railroad right-of-way through Yukon; and

THAT this House urges the Government of Canada, with the full participation of the Government of Yukon and Yukon First Nation governments affected, to commence discussions with the Government of the United States and the State of Alaska about establishing a mechanism such as an international joint commission to expedite the development of the Alaska Railroad proposal. (Motion #36)

A debate arising on the motion, it was moved by Mr. Fairclough, Member for Mayo-Tatchun, in amendment thereto:

THAT Motion No. 36 be amended by replacing the first clause that begins with the phrase "THAT this House urges" with the following:

A debate on the amendment and the question being put, it was agreed to.

A debate arising on Motion #36 as amended and the question being put, it was agreed to.

Moved by Mr. Rouble, Member for Mount Lorne:

THAT this House recognizes that:

- (1) every Canadian citizen deserves to receive adequate health care regardless of where they live,
- (2) the cost of maintaining the current level of health care in the Yukon has been increasing at an annual rate of $7 to $10 million, while transfer payments from the Government of Canada have been decreasing,
- (3) the Canada Health and Social Transfer which is based on per capita funding does not address the specialized needs of the three northern territories that have small populations separated by vast distances and high transportation costs, and
- (4) the recently negotiated Health Care Fund, while a step in the right direction, will only cover the annual increase in health care costs; and

THAT this House urges the Government of Canada to work together with the three northern territories to develop a permanent pan-northern solution to address health care needs in the north. (Motion #32)

A debate arising on the motion, it was moved by Ms. Duncan, Leader of the Third Party, in amendment thereto:

THAT Motion #32 be amended by deleting the words "while transfer payments from the Government of Canada have been decreasing" from clause 2.

A debate arising on the amendment, it was moved by the Hon. Mr. Jenkins, Minister of Health, in amendment thereto:

THAT the amendment to Motion # 32 be amended by adding after the words "clause 2" the following: "and substituting for them the following: 'and CHST transfer payments from the Government of Canada were cut in 1995 and have since not been restored in total'".

A debate arising on the sub-amendment, the Hon. Mr. Jenkins requested and was granted unanimous consent to withdraw the sub-amendment to Motion #32.

A debate arising on the amendment and the question being put, it was agreed to.

SPEAKER'S STATEMENT (Unparliamentary Comments)

Before calling Question Period, the Speaker made the following statement:

"Before we proceed with Question Period the Chair wishes to address an issue that arose in the House yesterday. Yesterday, during Question Period and during Committee of the Whole numerous references were made to members being 'secretive', or having concluded or participated in 'secret deals' or 'back room deals.' These accusations were leveled at Members of the current government and the past government, including one individual who is no longer a Member of this House. It is clear from the context in which these comments were made that they suggested Members of this House, past and present, had attempted or are attempting to deceive this Assembly, the Yukon public or both. This is not in order. As House of Commons Procedure and Practice notes at page 525, 'The proceedings of the house are based on a long-standing tradition of respect for the integrity of all Members....A direct charge or accusation against a Member may only be made by way of a substantive motion for which notice is required.' Further, it is clear from the events in Committee of the Whole that accusations of secretive behaviour cause disorder in the House. Therefore, in future, suggestions of secretive behaviour that infer deception will be ruled out of order. We will now proceed with question period."

MOTION OF URGENT PUBLIC IMPORTANCE

Pursuant to Standing Order 16(1), Mr. Hardy, Leader of the Official Opposition, moved:

THAT the ordinary business of the Assembly be adjourned.

After hearing comments from Mr. Hardy, Leader of the Official Opposition, Ms. Duncan, Leader of the Third Party, and the Hon. Mr. Jenkins, Government House Leader, the Speaker ruled that the request for leave did not meet the requirements of Standing Order 16 and that the ordinary business of the Assembly should not be set aside.

GOVERNMENT PRIVATE MEMBERS' BUSINESS
MOTIONS OTHER THAN GOVERNMENT MOTIONS

Moved by Mr. Rouble, Member for Southern Lakes:

THAT this House recognizes that the Government has:

- (1) committed to a "Team Yukon" approach in making First Nations full partners in the economic development of the territory, and
- (2) made a priority of establishing government relationships with First Nations based on mutual respect, consultation and collaboration with the objectives of reducing barriers and providing more cost effective services for all Yukon citizens; and

THAT this House urges the Government to ensure this approach extends to all areas of governance including the economy, education, health, justice, social and community services. (Motion #12)

A debate arising on the motion, it was moved by Mr. Fairclough, Member for Mayo-Tatchun, in amendment thereto:

THAT Motion #12 be amended by replacing the words "Government has" in the first line with the words "Yukon Party Government should", and by replacing the phrase "committed to a 'Team Yukon' approach in making" in clause (1) with the word "make", and by replacing the word "made" in clause (2) with the word "make".

THAT it is the opinion of this House that:

- (1) the economy of the Yukon is highly dependent upon natural resources and tourism,
- (2) getting resources to markets has, in the past, been most efficiently achieved through the use of the White Pass and Yukon Route Railway with port and tidewater access at Skagway, Alaska, and

OPPOSITION PRIVATE MEMBERS' BUSINESS
MOTIONS OTHER THAN GOVERNMENT MOTIONS

Moved by Ms. Duncan, Leader of the Third Party:

THAT it is the opinion of this House that:

- (1) two cabinet ministers in the Yukon Party Government owe large sums of money to the Yukon Government because they have failed to pay back business loans,
- (2) several private sector Yukon companies owe the Government of Yukon money because they have failed to pay back business loans,
- (3) the Government of Yukon is currently enforcing a new policy that requires companies to pay back loans when they receive additional income,
- (4) the Government of Yukon is allowing cabinet ministers who recently received a pay raise and are, therefore, more able to pay back their loans, to continue to be delinquent in their payments, and
- (5) this has created a double standard with cabinet ministers receiving special treatment; and

THAT this House urges the Government of Yukon to enforce the same standard of payment on loans by garnisheeing the additional wages of cabinet ministers who are not paying their debts. (Motion #56)

Moved by Mr. Hardy, Leader of the Official Opposition:

THAT it is the opinion of this House that:

- (1) during the past election campaign and since, the Yukon Party Government promised to adopt an approach to governing based on consensus, co-operation and compromise, and
- (2) a more co-operative approach to governing should include co-operating with elected representatives of the Yukon people who sit on the opposition side of this House in their attempts to get the information they need to examine government policies and spending priorities; and

THAT this House urges the Yukon Party Government to respect both its election commitments and the proper role of this House by providing information related to government policies and spending priorities in a co-operative, thorough and timely manner, as requested both orally and in written form by opposition MLAs.

Moved by Mr. Hardy, Leader of the Official Opposition:

THAT it is the opinion of this House that:

- (1) the decision by the Yukon Party Government to reduce public spending by more than $40 million in the 2003-2004 fiscal year will have a serious negative impact on the territory's economy, which will affect all Yukon communities,
- (2) direct spending by public employees is a major contributor to the economic health and stability of every Yukon community, and
- (3) cutbacks in government spending are already resulting in a loss of income for people who provide services to Yukon Government departments, agencies, or Crown Corporations, particularly in the areas of auxiliary, casual and seasonal employment; and

THAT this House urges the Yukon Party Government to honour both the letter and the spirit of its commitment not to diminish any kind of workforce within the government, in order to avoid any further erosion of the territory's economy. (Motion #54)
